

J2 TECHNICAL ARTICLE

Number 178

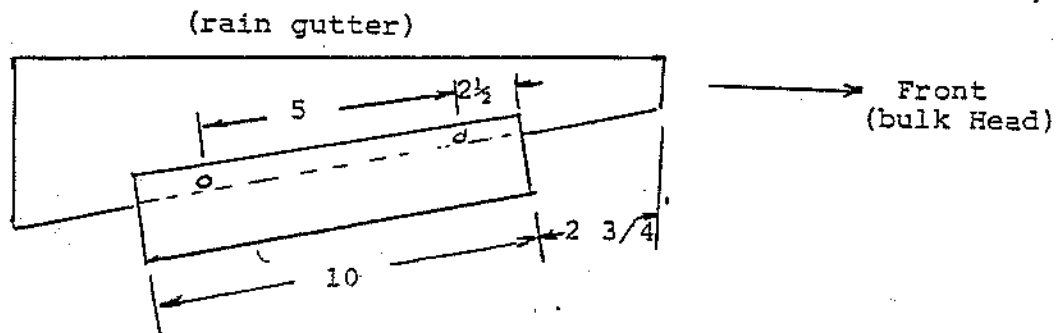

October 18, 1983

From Octagon Heaven

WIRE TROUGH UNDER RAIN GUTTER

The wire trough is a light metal trough hung under the rain gutter. It functions to hold the wire harness and all other tubes and hoses and keep them up and organized as they cross the area from the bulk head to the tub.

It is believed that the wire trough was made of 22 gauge aluminum.

Section view:

