

The "Ugly Ducklings" of the BRDC 500: Eyston's Magic Magnette & Fairfield's Riley at speed shortly before their epic skids which put them out of the running.

Bobby Kohlrausch the famous German Driver, snapped immediately after the German G.P. Hill Climb in which he won the 750 c.c. and 1,100 c.c. classes with his M.G. Cars.

An impressive view of the start of the 500, showing the manner in which the Magic Midget streaked away into the lead as the cars shot off the mark.

To the Victor the Spoils! Freddie Dixon having a hard-earned drink after his magnificent victory under appalling conditions in the 500 mile race.

The Driving Test in the L.C.C. Buxton-Buxton Trial was a real terror. The Officials, it will be seen, thought discretion the better part of valour.