Donington-Martin closely followed by Dodson at the hairpin bend beyond the old Start, in the Tuffield Trophy Race.

On the other hand E. R. Hall, here seen taking the same corner, 'cleaned up' the Sports 850, Racing & Sports 1,100, and Racing & Sports 4,000 c.c. classes.

W.E. Harker (arms akimbo) looking disconsolately at his wrecked Harker-Special, after its failure to negotiate the first corner of the S-Bend at Shelsley. In the top left hand corner may be seen an anxious group around the prostrate form of a lady who fainted from excitement!
