

The Sport - in Pictures

Start of one of the International Car Races, at Donington Park, at the final meeting of the 1934 season.

The picture of H. R. H. The Duke of Gloucester presenting C.N.A. Scott and J. Campbell Black (cousin of Norman Black) with the Macpherson Robertson Cup after the Melbourne Air Race was transmitted by wireless

The transport van which Herr Koltranech used for the racing M.G. Widgei and Magnette with which he was so successful in Continental events last season.

Re-surfacing the central promenade, Douglas L.O.M. to provide a practically skid-proof face for next year's Mannin Races.